OLD POINT COMFORT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
OLD POINT COMFORT, VA., June 23.—The present week was not a particularly gay one, although the hotels have quite a number of guests. Just at this season the majority of them only come for a short stay, and their time is spent in sight-seeing rather than in social pleasures.

The bathing season has commenced, and on warm afternoons the surf is dotted with bathers. And every day there are exciting games of tennis on the Chamberlain courts. Among the most enthusiastic players are Captain Albert C. Jenkins, United States Army, and Mrs. Jenkins, and Captain James Mitchell, United States Army, and Mrs. Mitchell, who have been guests at the Chamberlain for several months.

Among the hostesses of the week were Mrs. William M. Michel, of the post; Mrs. William Baughn, of Old Point; and Mrs. Thomas F. Knox, of the National Soldiers' Home.

There was an exciting game of baseball at the post on Wednesday afternoon, when the officers' team from the Norfolk navy yard contended for honors with the officers' team of Fortress Monroe. A tug brought over a large crowd of navy supporters, and the army contingent was out in force.

Recent patrons of the Chamberlain include Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Finley, Waterbury, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Louis D. Mason, Miss Emily Cochran, Baltimore; Miss Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Mitchell, Washington; Mrs. J. Thoburn Ross, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. J. J. Woodward, Washington; Miss Edith Marshall, Louisville, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Shaw, Los Vegas, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Ridgely Gallier, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Johnson, Muncie, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Farrel, New York.
